Local Wayne Nonprofit, I Want to Mow Your Lawn, Inc., Wins Kubota Hometown Proud® Grant

Organization to Receive $50,000 Grant in Cash and Equipment in Fifth Annual Program; Supported by Local Kubota Dealer Marshall Machinery, Inc.

WAYNE, N.J. (September 3, 2025) – Kubota Tractor Corporation is reaffirming its commitment to building stronger communities through its fifth annual Kubota Hometown Proud® grant program. This year, the company awarded ten grants — each including $25,000 in cash and $25,000 in Kubota equipment — to nonprofits across the country that are spearheading impactful projects locally.

Among this year’s recipients, the company is proud to announce that Lawn Care for Our Heroes & Neighbors, nominated by I Want to Mow Your Lawn, Inc. and supported by local Kubota dealer Marshall Machinery, Inc., is one of those winners.

“Communities know their needs best, and this program recognizes that truth,” noted Earl Marshall, president, Marshall Machinery, Inc. “We are thrilled to facilitate this grant in Wayne. Our partnership with I Want to Mow Your Lawn, Inc. is already in motion to help expand their week-long community service event across Northern New Jersey.”

I Want to Mow Your Lawn, Inc., a nonprofit in Wayne, NJ, provides free landscaping for veterans, the elderly, and struggling families. With support from the Kubota Hometown Proud grant and Marshall Machinery, the organization will expand its week-long community service event across Northern New Jersey, including homes and open spaces, improving accessibility and beautifying underserved areas of the community. “By uplifting elderly neighbors while activating everyday volunteers and local professionals, we not only clean up lawns — we lift spirits and restore pride. Kubota's investment will help power this mission, right where it matters most," said Brian Schwartz, founder, I Want to Mow Your Lawn, Inc.

Local Projects, National Commitment
